your missionaries to
LATVIA

March 2017

Hello Friends,

We were finally together with all our children when spring break and furlough lined up. We took a picture and have enclosed it with this letter. Some of you have been asking for an updated photo, and if you need a digital copy, just let us know and we will email one to you. Thank you for thinking of us and praying for us.

I am on my way back to Latvia. Linda and Tomas will join me in June when school lets out. Pray for souls to be saved and believers to be strengthened. I am excited to see which doors will be opened and am ready to resume ministry with the Ozolnieki Baptist Church as well as in the school in our area. My furlough will resume in October and I will be visiting churches again in America. If you would like to schedule a visit or have me participate in a conference, let me know.

Our daughter, Emily, is now engaged to be married. Amar Peterman popped the question just the other day. He is a young man she met at Moody Bible Institute. We are all very happy for them and ask you to pray with us about their future together.

We have received news from Monvids, our Latvian son, that his wife is expecting their first baby. We are excited for them and ask you to pray all will be well with them.

Lukas will be staying in America this summer to work and save for his next semester of college. He will be looking for a room to rent on his own. Pray for his protection and that he will have a heart to follow God's will. Tomas is in the process of planning his future education and life's direction. He has done well at Calvary Baptist Academy this year and has one more year to go before high school graduation. Pray God leads him in his many important decisions.

My time home was filled with some wonderful visits to churches who have a heart for the work in Latvia. We were encouraged by your hospitality, generosity, and encouraging words. Thank you for giving so that we will be able to replace our old car! We are still amazed! We thank the Lord for you all. It is together with you, that our family serves in Latvia.

In Christ,

Andy, Linda, Emily, Lukas and Tomas Briggs
