March & April, 2017

Robin and I have so enjoyed through the years God's blessings. We have also found it a thrill when God uses us to be a conduit of His blessing to others. Like the writer Ira B. Wilson this is our prayer, "Make Me a Blessing". This is our prayer for our lives, our family, our ministry and the upcoming events.

We are very excited about the event that takes place this Saturday, April 22nd. Our youngest daughter Christina is getting married to God's obvious choice for her, Enrique Coizeau, who lives in south Florida. In the chorus of "Make Me a Blessing" we find the words, "Out of my life may Jesus shine..." This has been Christina's & Enrique's desire for their wedding: that Jesus would bless His people and our family through the ceremony and the reception and that His presence would be so manifested that He would be glorified above all.

This is also the longing of our soul for our conference ministry, making us a blessing to His people throughout the Spanish-speaking world. We had very good conferences in Lima, Peru and Monterrey, Mexico, in February. Our conference in Campeche, Mexico, just finished up last week and the one in Veracruz, Mexico just started this week.

We have four conferences in four weeks. Please pray for the one that will be happening next week in Ambato, Ecuador, and then the other in Guadalajara, Mexico, the week after that.

The Lord allowed me last month to go to Matagalpa, Nicaragua, where I got to teach for a week 19 young men preparing for ministry.

I taught them a section of curriculum about the Life of Christ. We had a good week, and I am so excited that God is raising up young men with a passion for Him and His work.

Please pray for God to make us a blessing in our one-on-one work. I witnessed to a man named Todd. He in the end gave evidence of having trusted Christ, but was not living for Him. He said, "Thanks for talking to me. You helped me." Then there was the college student named Cameron. He is a JW, and sadly depending upon works to gain favor with God. I presented him truth. We will have to wait and see if he responds to God's Spirit. Geoffrey is a fellow who came to our house to do some work. Comes from a Catholic background. It was just so amazing to see how God gave me the opportunity to give him the gospel and make him really think about how he needs the righteousness of Christ.

God has used you folks to be a blessing to us. THANK YOU!!! Please continue to pray for us and our children to be a blessing to our precious LORD and fulfill His perfect will,

Victor & Robin Rouse
