Dear Rev. Blount & Church:

Greetings from my home in Weatherford, Texas!! We are having some much needed rain here. Everything is green and in bloom. I trust all is well with you and yours.

God is so gracious! How I thank you for your love and support for me, as I have so much to do for our Lord. I feel it's a privilege and an honor to serve Him and to share with others the Word of God.

I marvel at how God brought the Gospel to my husband and I and now I KNOW where Fred is and there is no pain. He was twenty-six and I was twenty when we first heard the Gospel. Praise the Lord for those who were faithful to serve and share the story with us.

I have had some health issues recently, but the Lord is in control and I am feeling much better these days. Recently I had a bad fall, here in my home. No broken bones, but did leave me with some nerve damage all over my body. Please pray for the healing of the damaged nerves and some "Elderly Grace" in going slower.

I celebrated my 85th Birthday on May 6, 2017. God has been so good to me. Thank you for the kindness of your hearts to help me continue to serve our Lord. I am praying for you.

Love and Prayers,

Mrs. (Fred) Joan Vaught
