Dear Friends,

The first week of November I arrived to Hungary to join my family. By God's grace I had a smooth trip, I am grateful for friends who pray for me when I travel! We had a wonderful time of reunion ☺ !

Right before my arrival a container of Hungarian Bibles were delivered to Debrecen from Shelbyville, TN. We are thankful to Brother Bobby Lemmon and Bible & Literature Missionary Foundation for printing nearly 27 000 Bibles! We also appreciate our friends at Couriers for Christ for taking care of the shipping!

It was a special time for my family as we had a chance to participate in such a missions endeavor "end to end". In June we had the privilege to help collate and pack some of these Hungarian Bibles at the Bible Barn and now we "met them again" right where they were meant to be, in Hungary! We are excited to give the Word of God to everyday Hungarian people! I remember the day when, as an unsaved young college student, received my first copy of the Word of God. I can personally testify about the difference it made in my life!

Shortly after my arrival I resumed meetings at the Debrecen Prison, so far seeing four inmates saved!

We are excited about the new supporters that the Lord gave us just lately, but we would still ask you all to beseech the Throne of Grace for our deputation ministry as Beya and I vision the rest of our lives being missionaries!
