Dear Pastor and Praying Friends,

“Enter into his gates with thanksgiving and into his courts with praise: be thankful unto him, and bless his name.” (Psalm 100:4)

“Thanksgiving” is one of my favorite holidays of the year because it reminds me of what the Almighty God has done for me. I remember as a young boy growing up in Chicago, playing football, there’s nothing like the electric crack of shoulder pads colliding on a cold “Thanksgiving Day.” Also, growing up with 11 brothers and sisters, my mom watched us leaped into giant piles of leaves. It’s about as close to perfection as a person can find this side of heaven.

True “Thanksgiving” is a reflection of what Christ has done for us on Calvary’s cross. “And you hath he quickened, who were dead in trespasses and sin.” (Ephesians 2:1) I am forever grateful for the salvation that I and my family have in our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

I am also grateful for the privilege of serving the Lord in a foreign mission field. The love of Christ is an essential component in reaching the Filipino people for the gospel sake. God has given us the increase seeing individuals put their faith in the Lord Jesus Christ. Our converts have been baptized and disciplined and are now serving in our church and deaf school. I am honored to have trained Emmanuel, one of our teachers, Charles and Ronan, our deaf students teach and preach from God’s Word. Each take turns in teaching Deaf Sunday School Class and preach during the worship service. It is a tremendous blessing to see them minister to their own people. Many of our converts today are the result of our survey and door-to-door visitations.

Another blessing is the opportunity to support those who serve in a foreign mission field. Our church here in the Philippines supports several missionaries. I read a quote that said, “I invite you to become a vast army with enthusiasm for God’s work and a great over arching desire to assist the missionaries in the tremendous responsibility they have.” As we go forward in faith, the Lord will bless our efforts to introduce others to the gospel.

Lastly, our sincere gratitude to Bro. Mike Mizell of BEAMS for donating Bibles, tracts and literatures to our ministry here in the Philippines. These materials will be distributed to our new converts and those who are being disciplined. As we approach the Christmas holiday, may we reflect on the TRUE reason for the season. Please continue to pray for our two sons, Christopher and Emmanuel. From the bottom of our hearts, thank you for your prayers and faithful support to our ministry. May God bless you!

Merry Christmas!

In His Service,

Chris Woodley
