Happy New Year! I hope you and yours enjoyed a wonderful holiday season. It is quite amazing that we are beginning the third decade of this century. It seems like it was just a few years ago that I bought a 50 pound bag of rice and filled up my bathtub in American Samoa in preparation for Y2K. Perhaps that brought a smile to your face—Y2K. A lot has happened since then, and many of you have been faithful to me and my family through these past two decades. Thank you for your faithful prayers and support through the years. 😊

We ended the year with a flurry of meetings. I praise the Lord for giving us safe travel in Florida, Georgia, Ohio and Tennessee. I also praise the Lord for the occasions to preach missions in local churches. I am scheduled to preach three times this month, once in Florida and twice in Tennessee. We would appreciate your continued prayers.

Last month, just before Christmas, I had the wonderful opportunity to minister in the country of Haiti. BIO Missionary Joel Desir invited me to preach the first anniversary service for

New Testament Baptist Church in Mirebalais, Haiti. Over 600 attended. That night four placed their trust in the Lord Jesus.

Following the first anniversary celebration Joel hosted the first annual preaching conference of the Church. He invited a few supporting pastors to participate in the conference. It was a great meeting, and several were saved.

On two occasions, following the evening service, we baptized in the river using flashlights and cell phones. As we walked back to the main road, I could easily see the Milky Way in the night sky. I was reminded of the promise that God made Abraham in Genesis 5:15: "Look now toward heaven, and tell the stars, if thou be able to number them: and he said unto him, So shall thy seed be." What a privilege it was to witness a small part of God's promise to Abraham play out in Haiti!

The highlight of the trip for me was the time we had teaching a dozen Haitian pastors serving in Haiti and in the Dominican Republic. I taught on missions. Following the conference two pastors from the Dominican expressed their gratitude for the teaching and said that they were going to go home and plant another church. Praise the Lord!

Thank you so much for your Prayers and Support. We Love You and pray for you!

John 10:16 "And other sheep I have, which are not of this fold: them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice; and there shall be one fold, and one shepherd."
