Dear Rev. Blount & Church:

Greetings to you from Texas! My heart is full of joy this morning as I read in Luke 12:23-34 of God's provision. I am thinking of all of the blessings from God and also thanking Him for being His children since 1952. The year my husband and I were saved. This has been true in mine and my husband's lives since that day. Not only by salvation, but the calling upon our lives to serve Him. God is true to His Word. He certainly does love and care for His own. He is an ever present friend to me now that my husband is in Heaven. Psalm 46:1-2 God is my refuge and strength.

God has blessed our area with much needed rain the past few days. We are so fortunate to finally see the land receive moisture. I do hope all is well with you as it is with me. I am happy to be a Christian, so that I can share with others and that I am able to do every day tasks that the Lord gives me to do. I am blessed to be here and happy that I can be of service to our Lord. My greatest desire is to be a witness for Jesus until He comes for His children. Every day, my prayer is to be a witness or a blessing to someone. He grants my prayer to do so in person or by phone. I recently had a fall and required several weeks of therapy. I talked to my therapist about the Lord and he is Christian. He asked me to pray with him and he prayed for my healing. It is such a blessing that God would send me a therapist that believes in the power of prayer.

Fred's birthday was August 31st. I do miss my precious husband so very much. I know he rejoices in Heaven. He was so faithful in his life and I long to see the rich rewards that he will receive in Heaven. Much of those rewards will go to you because of your faithful support for his ministry and now for me. God bless you and thank you for your prayers. Due to Covid19, it is taking some extra time to process the support you send me, but please know it's greatly appreciated and never taken for granted.

Yours Truly in Jesus,

Mrs. Fred (Joan) Vaught
