January 2022 Prayer Letter

Dear Prayer Warriors,

I am glad to tell you we had another good, safe month on the deputation trail! During the month of January, we had meetings in the states of Alabama, Tennessee, Louisiana, Arkansas, and Texas.

Praise the Lord that we now have 44% of our support goal raised! We are excited to see God working to continue helping us raise the support we need to proclaim His Gospel in Querétaro, México.

I am thankful for the opportunity I had to start witnessing to two young ladies in Spanish. Sadly, they had to leave before I could finish presenting the Gospel to them. Please pray with me that each of them would trust Christ as her Saviour.

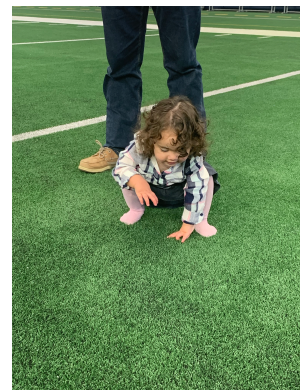

As I have previously mentioned, Charity greatly enjoys parks and swings in the different places we travel. We also discovered that she enjoyed crawling and walking (with help) on the turf at AT&T Stadium in Arlington, Texas. We are thankful for the opportunities we have to experience all of these unique things on deputation.

During this upcoming month of February, we will have meetings in Texas, Arkansas, and Tennessee. Your continued prayers for our safety as we travel and the perseverance of our minivan are greatly appreciated!

In Christ's service,

Tim Pontius
