July & August, 2022

A wonderful chorus entitled "I Will Sing of the Mercies of the Lord" embodies the song of our heart over the past month or so. God has given safety in all the traveling that has been done. God has given Robin and I health to work and to bless others. A few weeks ago, God showed us mercy by not letting a couple of tall trees in our back yard come crashing down upon our house during a most unusual thunderstorm that sat over our community for four hours. That storm also gave us, beside all the rain and wind, the most spectacular and persistent lightning show for those four hours. It was like the grand finale of a fireworks show that just would not end. So, we have had to spend time and money getting the trees cleared out. Pray that the root ball and trunk of the one tree can be removed soon.

Celaya, Mexico

Robin and I were blessed to be able to be at our annual Fires conference at the home base at Bethel Baptist Church in Illinois in June. Hundreds of hispanics came from around the country. Pastors were challenged, and families were encouraged. A number of young people surrendered their lives to serve the Lord full-time. The focus of the conference was on helping pastors, and fathers and mothers navigate within the bounds of biblical truth the dangerous movements occurring in society.

Pastors in Celaya, Mexico

In the first week of August, we had the largest conference of the year. It was held at the Fundamental Baptist Church in Celaya, Mexico. Over 3000 were in attendance in the evening services with folks coming from all over Mexico. About 200 pastors attended along with hundreds and hundreds of young people. I was blessed with the responsibility of teaching some classes during the conference. In soul-winning efforts during the week, a good number of decisions were made for salvation. By Thursday night, 140 brethren surrendered their lives to serve the Lord in full-time service. My lodging was with a family court judge and his wife who is an educator. They were such a blessing. A sweet and precious couple that love the Lord. I wish you could meet and know them.

Fires of Evangelism is entering a busy time of the year with many upcoming conferences between now and the first week of December. I will be going to Belize next week. Then, we have a new one in Colombia and an annual one in El Salvador in September. Please pray for health, wisdom, and safe travels for our speakers and the monies to cover the costs of each conference. Robin and I hope that you are doing well. Please let us know how we can help you in prayer.

Rejoicing in His mercies,

Victor & Robin Rouse
