Thankful

We hope that everyone reading this letter had a wonderful Thanksgiving with their families. This was our first Thanksgiving away from our family in the States but also our first Thanksgiving where we got to start some of our own traditions. Amber did most of the hard work making a special brunch to start the day while I watched the girls. Later in the evening we got together with some other missionaries to enjoy a big meal together.

In the middle of November we had a lot of sickness; Rosie, Sofia, and myself all came down with a bug that stuck around for a while. Praise the Lord we are all doing better again. Considering the fact that we are in a new country facing so many germs that our systems aren't adapted to yet, we are amazed and thankful that we haven't been sick more often this year.

We started the month with a trip to the immigration office, and got our visas renewed for another 60 days. We are hopeful that we won't have to do that too many more times before our residency goes through. Language studies are also going well. Sofia's Spanish, in particular, is really developing exponentially.

I wanted to apologize to those of you who receive our prayer letter just by mail. Some of you may not have received prayer letters from us for a few months. There was a change in who was sending out our prayer letters and I completely overlooked the memo. We greatly appreciate everyone's prayers and would not like that to happen again, so let me give you a few options to reach us in case something like that happens again or if you need to contact me for anything else such as giving an update at your church whenever we have our furlough, which will hopefully be this coming Spring/Summer.

Our US number still works [850-602-8222] but it can take a few attempts for the connection to go through successfully. That number is also my Whatsapp number. My email is projectwinhonduras@gmail.com. Facebook messenger would also work. Or you could send mail to our mission board at: PO Box 647, Dawsonville, GA 30534. They will send me a photocopy of any mail. Once again, sorry for the inconvenience.

Thank you for your prayers for us. As we enter the holiday season, we are also drawing close to our one-year mark here in Honduras, and our minds are filled with many things God has done for us. One of those things is having brothers and sisters like yourselves who continually lift us up in prayer. Thank you for loving missions. Thank you for loving us. May the Lord bless you greatly.

Serving Christ,
