January 2024 Prayer Letter

Dear Prayer Warriors,

As we enter this new year, we do it with continued gratefulness for your generosity to us. We appreciate the faithful financial support and prayer support that you give to us. We are also very thankful for the many different Christmas offerings we received over the past few months. God has used your generosity in a tremendous way in our life and ministry.

Regarding our ministry here in Mexico, I am glad to report that Pastor Arrache has entrusted me with the leadership of his church's Sunday School ministry. We appreciate this opportunity and hope to see God work mightily in the lives of these kids here in Irapuato. We would appreciate your prayers regarding this ministry, and also regarding the bus route we hope to start soon. We have several contacts lined up, and we were able to take a couple people to church in our car this past Sunday. Further, we are glad to report we saw 2 people saved this past month. We are glad to see God working here in Mexico and we pray that He will continue to do so!

In our last letter, I mentioned that we were having issues with registering our vehicle. Unfortunately, we still do not yet have the proper proof of address that the state of Guanajuato requires. I will continue working to resolve this issue, and we continue to covet your prayers in this matter.

Again, we cannot overstate our appreciation of your continued support of our ministry. We do pray that God would continue to bless you all greatly!

In Christ's service,
