

DEAR PRAYING FRIENDS & FAMILY,

July 2024

Ellie said, "We have an ODD family... because there's 5 of us & that makes us an 'odd' family." Haha! When she said that, it reminded us of the message where this month's quote came from. We pray that we continue to help make eternal differences in the lives of those we encounter. Whether I'm the Philippines out in the States, our ministry is not dependent on location.

But as we prepare for our furlough, our hearts are torn. It was very difficult for us to leave the field even for a short time. There is so much that still needs to be done in the Philippines, work to complete & people to reach! But we are excited that our home church gave our girls the amazing gift of reconnecting with family & friends for youth camp. We are also eagerly awaiting personally telling you about what God is doing in the Philippines.

So get ready! We are stateside! Acts 14:27 "And when they were come, and had gathered the church together, they rehearsed all that God had done with them, and how he had opened the door of faith to the Gentiles." What stories do you want to hear about? The happy & exciting? About the different personalities of each of our Bible Club kids & how they have grown spiritually since accepting Christ? Do you want to know about the ladies Jen disciples at the pregnancy clinic?

Or... Do you want to know the "real,"...the deep ... & the struggles? About the boys we recently picked up begging at the 7-Eleven across the street, two of which are brothers who lost their mother just months ago & are now living as street-kids with no home. How about how one of our Bible Club babies vomited & all that came up were worms? Times of trials & times of discouragement?

If you find us at your church, please come talk to us, especially our girls! Our Kid Missionaries have been just as busy making a difference in The Philippines!! We will also post where we are in our furlough travels, so if you see us passing through, we won't turn down an invite for some ice cream =] & the opportunity to fellowship with you!

PRAISES & PRAYER REQUESTS

1. Praise the Lord for the 3 missions teams that came to visit us!
2. Praise the Lord that a doctor that Tommy has been working with for over a year accepted Christ! He was a devout Catholic who struggled with the thought of not having to work to earn salvation.
3. Please pray for our furlough travels and that God will use us to minister to the hearts of His people.
