

Unto us a Son is given

Christmas, 2025

Dear Prayer Partner:

The Scripture verse on the letterhead says it all, “unto us a son is given...” That is the Christmas Story in a nutshell. Its all about Him, “For God so loved the world that He gave...” Everything we do at this season ought to be centered around that truth.

This is, indeed, my favorite time of the year, as it is with many of you. Even with all the hustle & bustle that goes on, I still love Christmas. I love the decorations, the gift-giving (and receiving), the food, the fellowship, all of it, but the one thing I love most is that it is the one time of the year when the whole world must acknowledge (maybe in different ways) that Christ Jesus came into this world. Even the calendar tells us that because this is 2025, the year of our Lord.

May you enjoy all the Christmas festivities but remember that it is all about JESUS! He was the Father’s SUPERNATURAL, SPECIAL and SUFFICIENT gift to this world. To take Him to be your Savior will change your life forever and will assure you of Eternal life with Him.

Joyce and I want to wish you all a very Merry and Christ-centered Christmas. If you do not know Him as your personal Savior, may you trust Him today and find peace through the blood of His Cross. If you do, we can promise you that this will be your very best Christmas ever!

We would like to take this opportunity to thank you for your faithful prayers and support of our ministry to our military. Some have sent special Christmas offering and we are very grateful. Please remember our military during this season, especially those stationed overseas. I suppose the loneliest time of my life was Christmas Eve, 1967, in Vietnam. It was my first Christmas away from home, family and friends so I know how lonely a military person overseas can be. Please pray for them, as well as for all of our military personnel and their families.

May God bless you throughout the new year coming as you continue serving Him. We love you and remain...

In Christ’s Service,

Jeff & Joyce Alverson
